THE SCRIPTURE- August 27, 2017

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Times

Eliakim's faith in the Hebrew God when the people of Israel seemed to have lost faith made God to place the key of the house of David upon his shoulder as we were told in the first reading. Peter's profession of faith in Jesus as the Christ or the Messiah, the Son of the living God merited him the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Faith in God through Jesus Christ from whom and through whom and to whom are all things is the key to all we need in life including the kingdom of heaven.

As the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God is beyond our reach and his judgments are unsearchable the only way to know him is by faith. How strong is our faith as a worshipping community and as individuals? When we break the word of God every day in our churches and in our homes, do we truly believe that it is God who is speaking to us? When we participate at the Eucharist, does faith carry us through the mystery that we celebrate? No matter what you are going through in life, the pains and sicknesses you may be suffering, do not forget that God's love for you is eternal. We can only see this through the eyes of faith.

O Lord, you created us for yourself and we are the work of your hands; do not discard the work of your hands. Increase our faith in you and help us to see your hands leading us in every situation.
