THE SCRIPTURE- December 10, 2017
Second Sunday of Advent

Today, on this 2nd Sunday of Advent, we read from the Gospel of St. Mark. Unlike the gospels of Luke and Matthew, the Gospel of Mark does not include any details of Jesus' birth. For St. Mark, he begins by focusing on St. John the Baptist as one who helps to prepare the way for the Lord. St. Mark's gospel begins in its opening sentence: The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ the Son of God. As it is written in Isaiah the prophet: Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way. A voice of one crying out in the desert: "Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths."

From the very beginning, St. Mark affirms that Jesus is the Son of God. As he presents John the Baptist. He also calls each one of us into this covenant of announcing the Lord's coming and preparing a way for him. Jesus' life reminds us that preparing a place for Christ to be born begins in our hearts. Through baptism, our hearts are cleansed and made open was that God's action in our lives can truly make us his people.

Advent really announces to us all that -We matter to God! God will never leave us in exile. God constantly calls his people back to him with hearts and hands and voices. We must trust that God's words are true. God will never abandon his people. We all can imagine that our way of doing things is not the same as God's way of doing things. Nevertheless, we must continually seek God's will in our lives.

The Season of Advent offers us an opportunity to witness and proclaim God's love for us all. The simple lesson of Advent asks us to 1) Be ready to change. 2) Acknowledge that God will help us change. 3) Welcome the Holy Spirit to open our hearts to others along this journey. 4) Always have trust that God is with us. At the heart of this lesson, we must recognize that we cannot do this alone. We need each other. Identify at least one action that you will take this week to try to be more faithful followers of Jesus.

Advent is a season of a faith journey into which we are invited. How strong is your faith? What causes you to doubt the most? Many times, when these questions are asked, we often think of someone other than ourselves who either helps or causes doubt in our faith life. Today, Jesus is asking, who do you say that I am? If what you is true, how have Jesus' presence in your life made a difference?

Advent asks a new mindset from us. With this new change of heart, we will become more believable as we announce Christ's forgiveness in our lives and become more open to God's forgiveness in the lives others.

"God of timeless grace,
you fill us with joyful expectation.
Make us ready for the message that prepares the way,
that with uprightness of heart and holy joy
we may eagerly await the kingdom of your Son, Jesus Christ,
who reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, now and forever.
Amen."
